PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On June 01, 2008, at approximately 9:30 p.m., Border Patrol Agent I. Tabarez was performing his assigned patrol duties near Boulevard, California. This area is located approximately three miles north of the United States/ Mexico international border.

While performing his duties, Agent Tabarez, was observing seven individuals on a trail three miles north of the border. Agent Tabarez approached the group on foot to further investigate. As Agent Tabarez approached the group, they ran a short distance and tried to hide in the thick brush. After a brief search of the area, Agent Tabarez found the seven individuals. Agent Tabarez identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent and conducted an immigration inspection. All seven individuals including one later identified as the defendant Juan Alfonso CARDENAS-Martinez, admitted to being citizens and nationals of Mexico without any immigration documents that would allow them to legally enter or remain in the United States. All seven were placed under arrest and transported to the Boulevard Border Patrol Station for processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on November 3, 2007 through San Ysidro, California. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.
